

Photography at Basketball

Associations and Leagues should usually allow parents and close Relatives to take photographs and video tape games provided the parent or relative is known to the Association. Permission to photograph is required. The coach or team manager of both teams should be notified of the intention to photograph or video the game.

A legitimate and strong reason must be given for refusal of the photographing or videoing.